

ABSTRACT OF DISCLOSURE

A novel analogue of insulin has covalently conjugated thereto, preferably at the B1 residue, 3, 3', 5'-triiodothyroxine. The conjugate is believed to be hepatoselective, whilst it retains insulin receptor binding properties